55 HOUR A WEEK SCHEDULE

In Westerly Woolen Mills that Have Been Running Short Time Since Last Fall—With Granite Plant Start Work—United Charities Society Project in Westerly Abandoned.

There is liability of legal squabble as to the ownership of the wharf used as a landing for steamer Watch Hill, which pierces between Stonington and Watch Hill. Capt. H. Hobart Babcock is to have a new wharf built at Stonington and has given contract for the erection of a building on the wharf at Watch Hill, to be used as an office by the Adams Express and the railroad companies, in connection with Captain Babcock's ferry business.

The Watch Hill fire district expended $50,000 for the purchase of the shore front and the buildings thereon, which are now being removed, and the owners of the land over which there is approach to the wharf may object to the erection of the building thereon, as it would be detrimental to the plan to beautify the shore front. The fire district not only claims ownership of the approach but also the wharf.

Captain Babcock claims the wharf was no part of the fire district purchase, but that it is his property, while others also claim ownership. The management of the wharf has been conducted on friendly terms, the users contributing to keep it in good repair and considered it a sort of party property.

A protest is to be made against the erection of the building, it is quite likely that steps will be taken to establish the legal ownership and all rights connected with the wharf.

The four-masted schooner Catherine M. Monahan of the Gilbert fleet will be practically all owned in Providence if negotiations now in progress are consummated. Forty-eight per cent of the stock has been owned in that city since the vessel was first "laid down" and 52 per cent is owned by the Gilbert Transportation company, which is now in the hands of a receiver.

Providence stockholders are negotiating for the shares held by the company and if the deal goes through the Monahan will become a part of the Davis fleet of Providence.

There was a whist party given by Mrs. Edward Congdon at her home in Spruce street Wednesday afternoon for the benefit of Phoebe Greene Ward chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

EMANCIPATION FROM MORTGAGE.

her stakes" for a new spread of canvas to cover growth.
Standing as you do today upon this higher ground with the encumbrance removed which must have been at many times an obsession hindering advance, you have occasion not only to express profound gratitude to God for His precious leading, but you will see in a marked degree, I believe, His beckoning hand inviting to a greater and more gracious service in His kingdom than ever in your history.

During the first 23 years of organization and development under Elder Sherry's ministry, there were but two recorded times of refreshing, viz., 1811 and 1819. Considerably more than a fourth of those baptized into the fellowship of the church in that first quarter of a century came through these revivals.

Ten years later Brother Kneeland assisted the pastor in a fruitful work of grace. Six years later, in 1835, under Pastor Smalley came a season of great refreshing. Rev. John Blain assisted the pastor in this inspiring gathering. It would be exceedingly interesting to trace the relationship between this gathering and the stirring of five years later, which resulted in the establishment of the Central church.

Some time ago we may know what that revival had to do with the wider work of this church in the growth of the kingdom. The years of 1843 and 1845 witnessed the wonderful and historic revival under Elder Swan, assisted by Elders Lyon, Weaver and Cross. More than 100 were baptized at that time. Among the other notable things which came out of this movement was the assumption by the church of another debt.

Revivals are recorded for the years 1856 and 1857. With the latter year it is of peculiar interest to note that Rev. John Blain of revered memory, after an interval of 35 years, was again invited to assist in a series of evangelistic meetings.

Two things have I observed in the 30 years since the Lord called me into Christian work. One is that some churches have succumbed from too great a financial burden and others have died spiritually from too little. A debt honorably and worthily carried does not prevent your pastors from preaching righteousness and thereby winning for the kingdom. Neither has it deterred evangelists from coming to your aid in gracious reapings.

You have a fine property, a superior locality and a God-given opportunity. I am sure that if you resolve today to relinquish these three in a new and stronger emphasis on the spiritual side of your work, in a new consciousness of the value which your divine Lord puts upon material things dedicated to His cause and glory, and a new determination to have the truth of God in all its evangelical fullness and fervor, presented through your church to your world, then nothing can exceed the certainty with which the spiritual side of the Lord will prosper in your hands.

Supper Served.
Remarks were made by Rev. Dr. Coates and Rev. J. R. Very, pastor of the Third Baptist church of Greenville. Rev. Mr. Very brought greetings and congratulations from the church.

Prayer was offered and benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Very.

Mr. Thayer cordially invited all to the where a house of prayer was super served by the Church Aid society. Grace was offered by Rev. Dr. Coates, followed by singing Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow.

Evening Session.
Prayer was offered by Rev. C. K. Flinders. The mortgage history was given by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Thayer.

In giving the history of the mortgage, Rev. Mr. Thayer stated that it was on the church, on the mortgage, 16, 1885, amounting to $5,000. This sum was needed to repay Captain Morgan of Groton, who had loaned the church that amount of money without interest and had never intended to call for it, but through financial reverses had to ask the church to repay him. A committee of sixty was at once formed to take steps to cancel the mortgage, but the records did not show how much this committee accomplished.

By 1893 the mortgage had been reduced to $4,283, to $3,800 in 1894. In 1898 in the pastorate of Rev. H. E. Wise $225 was paid; in 1899 $500, in 1900 $200, and in 1904 the sum of $500, through a bequest, reducing the mortgage to $3,575. In 1908 the junior church paid $400 and the Sunday school $100, about this time there was a floating indebtedness of $500. In 1909 the floating debt and $1,200 on the mortgage was paid. At the beginning of 1910 the mortgage was $1,275. This was all paid off Feb. 19.

Commending those who had especially assisted in paying off the mortgage finally, Rev. Mr. Thayer mentioned A. R. Aborn and John Morgan, who had both, unsolicited, requested the privilege of paying off the last $100. He thanked the junior church as originators of the effort to pay it off.

Men's society, for a pledge of $1,000; the Sunday school for $500, the Church Aid society, the church membership, those outside the church, and the debt committee for the undesignated assistance. The interest had amounted to $4,279, so that in all these years there had been paid out over $9,000. Now, in unity and harmony, the church stood to face a more glorious spiritual work, and was committed to the object of a permanent endowment fund and the winning of the men and women who frequent the streets in front of the church.

Letters were read from Mrs. L. B. Davis of Norwich, Miss Jennie Dennison of Norwich, Mrs. Jennie Rogers

Smith of Syracuse, Mrs. Mary Trix-wold Harwood of Norwich, and Rev. P. C. Wright, Arthur Blackledge, ably assisted by a solo Abbie With Me.

Mr. Thayer gracefully introduced Rev. Dr. Howe, pastor of the Park Congregational church.

The Unity of the Church.
Representing the other churches of the city, Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe of Park Congregational church brought the congratulations of the city congregations, giving voice to his feeling that there is but one church of God in heaven and on earth, referring to the simplicity of the early church, and predicting that we were coming again to that some day. Speaking upon the theme "The Unity of the Church," he said that the churches were all one before Jesus Christ, all alike in Christian experience, all facing the same goal. When you come to compare the great identities, how small are the differences. Believing in the important things, isn't it evident that the Christian people ought to be brought closer together? The battle line of evil is in front of us, and let us stop differing so that we can throw our full strength against that and face the great things for the extension of Jesus Christ's kingdom abroad and at your door. You are in a position to enter this work as never before.

The Mortgage Burned.
Mr. Thayer in speaking of the mortgage, spoke of the signs of the mortgage, A. R. Aborn, John T. Perkins and William R. Cowan. Mr. Cowan was asked to come forward and to his own way, burn the mortgage. Mr. Cowan spoke pathetically of the many gone who were so closely associated with the church. He spoke of Daniel Perkins, father of John T. Perkins, Perkins, Deacon Charles Peale, Capt. William Smith, Deacon George Cranston, John T. Perkins, signer of the mortgage, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Charles Winters, Mrs. Tourtellotte.

During the burning of the mortgage Mr. Cowan asked that a prayer might go up to the God who had done so much for us. As the mortgage was disappearing the hymn Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow made the whole church ring with thanksgiving.

A Forward Look.
Rev. Dr. Coates was the last speaker of the evening, his topic being "A Forward Look." He said that the churches of New London county seemed to be burning, as he had attended such a ceremony six months ago at Bozrah, and now Rev. Mr. Very was inviting him to one at Greenville. He took his text "Always abounding in the work of the Lord," and emphasized the thought that this meant to do your religious work better than anything else. It meant doing more than enough. He stated that there was about $300 needed for current expenses and $450 for necessary painting and improvements of the church building. Cards were distributed upon which pledges could be made for this purpose.

Upon these the sum of $646 was received and the congregation met in singing the Doxology in thankfulness. The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Coates.

Reception Held.
Following the evening service an informal reception was held in the church parlors, where the different organizations of the church were represented in the receiving party. Deacons Ernestus Gardner, Frank Lathrop, Edward C. Fowler, A. Johnson, Charles Cross, Fred Wilson, with their wives, to represent the church. The Kene society was represented by its president and vice president, Mrs. Herbert Willey and John B. Out.

A social time was spent and fruit punch and wafers were served, closing a day always to be remembered in the history of the church.

During the social a book was circulated in which all were invited to inscribe their names as a roll call and to be kept as a souvenir of the event.

Out of Danger Zone.
The dangerous counterfeit fifty-dollar note that is being talked of does not threaten very many of us—Knoxville Journal.
